

September—December 2009

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Calendar of Events

September

Sep 7: Labor Day Holiday (University Closed).
Sep 8: First day of Fall Quarter. Welcome!
Sep 16: Multicultural Welcome Reception. Join us in welcoming new and returning faculty, staff, and students to the WSU community. The celebration will feature music, student organizations, networking, cross-cultural connections, and refreshments. Millett Hall Atrium and Multicultural Lounge. 3-5 pm.
Sep 13-Oct 18: Line Fade by Erwin Redl. Opening Sep 13, 2:30pm, M252 CAC. Free artist lecture, reception to follow in the Stein Galleries. Line Fade is curated by Wright State's Associate Professor of Art Stefan Chinov, presented by the Dayton Power & Light Foundation, and supported by an Arts Innovation grant by the Ohio Arts Council.
Sep 18: Beatrix*JAR Circuit-Bending Workshop. Create new and funky sounds using circuit-bending techniques on children's toys. No experience necessary. Free, but registration is required as space is limited. Rathskeller lounge. Contact Tess Cortés 775-2978 to register. 11 am-noon.
Sep 24: Artist Series: Street, Saxophone & Admiral, piano. Legendary saxophonist Jean-Marie Londeix, saxophonist William Street, and pianist Roger Admiral will be making their final concert tour. CAC, Schuster Hall. Tickets required. 8 pm.
Sep 27: Faculty Recital Series: Debbie Lindley, piano. First Baptist Church of Dayton, 111 W. Monument Ave., Dayton. 4:30 pm.

October

Oct 1-4, Oct 8-11: Proof. "Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama!" Tickets required. Call for show times.
Oct 3: Collegiate Chorale Cabaret Night. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8 pm.
Oct 7: Artist Series: Ralph Votapek, piano. In addition to solo works by Scarlatti, Mendelssohn and Ravel, Mr. Votapek will perform Beethoven's Emperor Concerto with the WSU Chamber Orchestra. CAC, Schuster Hall. Tickets required. 8 pm.
Oct 10: Senior Recital: Carrie Baeumel, soprano. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8 pm.
Oct 11: Winter and intercession registration begins.
Oct. 19: 9th Annual Mad River Vocal Arts Festival Final Concert. CAC, Schuster Hall. The culmination of regional high school students working for the weekend with Dr. Janet Galván, a world-class choral conductor. Tickets are $5.00 at the door. 6:30-8:30 pm.
Oct 21: Faculty Recital Series: Benjamin Miles, tuba. Benjamin Miles is the applied tuba and euphonium teacher and plays in the Faculty Brass Quintet. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8-10 pm.

November

Nov 1-Jan 10: Reflections on Darwin. 2009 marks the 150th anniversary of On the Origin of Species, Charles Darwin's controversial book about the theory of evolution, and is also the 200th anniversary of his birth. To commemorate Darwin and the significance of the theory of evolution on our culture, Reflections on Darwin includes artists exploring through various contemporary art practices the ideas behind evolution and its impact on today's society. JD Talasek, Director Cultural Programs of the National Academy of Sciences (CPNAS) will present a lecture on the theory of evolution and its influence on contemporary art on Thursday, Nov 5. Curated by Benjamin Montague, Assistant Professor of Art.
Nov 1, Nov 4-8, Nov 13-15: The Pajama Game. "Bright, Sassy, a Humdinger of a Show!" Tickets required. Call for show times.
Nov 5: STEAM3 Lecture. CAC, Schuster Hall. 7 pm.
Nov 6-8: Cymbeline. Herbst Theatre. Tickets required. Call theatre box office for show times.
Nov 6-8: WSU Opera Theatre presents Opera Scenes. Scenes from six well-known operas. The WSU Opera Theatre is directed by Kimberly Warrick. CAC, Schuster Hall. Tickets required.

Nov 8: Chamber Players. The Chamber Players is an ensemble, comprised of players from within the Wind Symphony, which performs wind compositions calling for smaller forces. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8-10 pm.
Nov 9: Clarinet Night. CAC, Recital Hall. 8-10 pm.
Nov 10: Symphony Orchestra. The Wright State University Symphony Orchestra performs major orchestral works on campus and around the region and is under the direction of In-Hong Cha. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8-10 pm.
Nov 11: Veterans' Day Holiday (University Closed).
Nov 12: Concert Band and Symphonic Band. The Symphonic and Concert Bands are performing wind ensembles open to all WSU students from a wide variety of majors and fields of study within the university. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8-10 pm.
Nov 13: Wind Symphony. The Wind Symphony is the university's elite symphonic band. Its members are chosen by competitive audition and perform the finest in symphonic wind repertoire. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8-10 pm.
Nov 15: Holidays in the Heartland. Schuster Center, Dayton. This concert has been a Miami Valley tradition for more than a decade. With its unique blend of holiday music and patriotic favorites, this moving and joyful concert is not to be missed. Tickets to this concert are available through Ticket Center Stage at (937)228-7591. 7:30 pm.
Nov 16: Trumpet Studio Recital. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8 pm.
Nov 17: Percussion Studio. CAC, Schuster Hall. 8 pm.
Nov 21: Fall Commencement. Nutter Center. 10 am.
Nov 26-27: Thanksgiving Holiday (University Closed).

December

Nov 30-Dec 18: Intersession Classes.
Dec 8: Last day to apply for March graduation.
Dec 24-25: Christmas Holiday (University Closed).

See you January 4—
1st Day of Winter Quarter

All events are free and open to the public, unless otherwise stated.

For more information on art, music, and theatre events:

Art Department (937) 775-2896
 Music Department (937) 775-2346
 Theatre Box Office (937) 775-2500
 Student Union Box Office (937) 775-5544

For an up-to-date list, go to WINGS,
Community tab, Events Calendar