Letters of Recommendation

If the program for which you are applying requires letters of recommendation (see application instruction sheet), you are responsible for arranging to have each person listed above send a letter to the School of Graduate Studies, E344 Student Union. All letters of recommendation will be retained in your student records file in the School of Graduate Studies and forwarded to the appropriate department or graduate program office for admissions decision along with your other application documents.

Personal Comments

You may use this space to elaborate or explain any item on the application.

Statement of Objectives

Directions

See application instruction sheet for the type of statement required by the department offering the program for which you are applying. If your program is not listed on the sheet, no statement is required. If a statement is required, then it must be included with this application. A typewritten statement is preferred.

Must be signed by all applicants

I certify that to the best of my knowledge the information given above is true. I understand that any misrepresentation of facts on this application, if discovered subsequently, will be cause for refusal of admission, cancellation of admission, or suspension from the university.

By signing this application, I agree to abide by the policies and regulations of the university.

Admission

State law requires all state-assisted universities to charge nonresident fees to Ohio male students who have not registered with the Selective Service. If you were born after December 31, 1959, have not reached the age of 27 years, and have not registered with the Selective Service, you may do so at any United States Post Office.

Students must be officially accepted for admission to the School of Graduate Studies before they may register for graduate credit. Admission to the School of Graduate Studies does not necessarily indicate candidacy for an advanced degree. Such candidacy is subject to specific requirements, as defined by the individual program.

This application form should be filled out carefully and completely. Please type or print your information. Show "N/A" (not applicable) when appropriate. If the application form is submitted with essential information that is missing or illegible, it will be returned to you to be corrected, which will delay processing. This form, when completed, must be signed and dated. All documents received by the university in connection with applications for admission become the property of Wright State University. Under no circumstances will they be returned to the applicant or forwarded to any agency or other college or university.

Former Students

Students formerly admitted to the School of Graduate Studies but not completing a course in the past four quarters, or those who have received the degree for which they were originally admitted, must submit a new application form.

Transient Status

If you have been admitted to a degree program in another regionally accredited graduate school, are currently in good standing in that program, and intend to return, you may apply for transient status. Transient status is granted for one quarter only but may be renewed. In addition to an application, students seeking this status must submit a completed transient form.

Transcripts

One (1) official transcript sent from each institution attended (except Wright State University) is required. If courses from one university/college appear on another university's/college's transcript, you are still required to submit an official transcript from the college where you originally completed the course work. Nondegree students need to submit only the official transcript that reflects the award of a baccalaureate, master's, or doctorate degree.

Application Fee

A nonrefundable $25 fee is required of all degree and certification candidates. This is a one-time fee; it is not required of anyone previously admitted to a Wright State graduate program. There is a nonrefundable $10 application fee for nondegree study.

International Students

In addition to the application form, all international students must submit a certified copy of all university/college records in English, accompanied by official transcripts in the native language; financial statement form; official bank statement; a statement outlining degree objectives; and an official score from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (for students from countries where English is not the native language).

Graduate Assistantships

Assistantships are awarded through individual departments and certain administrative offices. Assistantship responsibilities require a specified amount of time for assisting either in instruction or in research. Requests for information regarding assistantships should be directed to the chair of the department involved. Assistantship applications are available from the department chair's office, and all assistantship documents are to be returned to that office.

Particular Application Requirements of Degree Programs

Accountancy: letter of recommendation attesting to applicant's ethical character and personal integrity, current resumé, and Graduate Management Admission Test (no older than five years).

Anatomy, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Biological Sciences, Microbiology and Immunology, and Physiology and Neuroscience: statement of preferred option or concentration of study, professional goals, purpose of graduate study, and specialty interest, plus three letters of recommendation. Biological Sciences requires the GRE.

Applied Behavioral Science: three letters of recommendation and an essay outlining professional goals and academic interests.

Biomedical Sciences (Ph.D.): single-page essay describing reasons for interest in biomedical sciences and career goals, three letters of recommendation, and Graduate Record Examination.

Chemistry: statement of educational and professional goals.

College of Education and Human Services: (1). Attach to your application a statement of your educational and professional goals. Classroom Teacher Education programs do not require letters of recommendation. Human Services programs require letters of recommendation on separate forms from the individuals they list as references. These forms can be obtained from the School of Graduate Studies or the College of Education and Human Services, or downloaded from the School of Graduate Studies Web site at www.wright.edu/sogs/forms/lor.pdf. (2). The GRE or MAT is required for all programs except: Graduate Level Classroom Teacher Preparation Program (Adolescent Young Adult, Multi-Age, and Middle Childhood.) These programs require passing the Praxis II Specialty Area Exam. If your undergraduate cumulative GPA for all undergraduate courses you may have taken is at least a 3.0, you do not have to take the GRE or MAT. The Educational Specialist degree program requires the GRE or MAT (no exceptions.) Human Services programs do not require the GRE or MAT if your cumulative GPA for all undergraduate work is at least a 3.3. (3). In addition to this application, the Classroom Teacher program requires that a separate application be completed and returned to them. The application and instructions can be obtained from www.wright.edu/cehs. (4). In addition to meeting at least the minimum admission requirements, students applying to Human Services programs will be granted admission only after having been successfully interviewed by human services program faculty and having provided a satisfactory writing sample at the time of the interview. Students applying to Educational Administrative Specialist, Principal, and Superintendent programs need to submit a copy of their teaching license. Students applying for Licensure should review the insert.

International and Comparative Politics: three letters of recommendation, preferably from college instructors familiar with the candidate's intellectual skills, are required. Candidates should prepare an essay that discusses a current issue or policy related to international affairs or comparative politics. The essay should be approximately 500 words and should use secondary sources. Additionally, students should prepare a brief cover letter (approximately 1 page) that introduces their academic and/or professional background as well as their goals for graduate study.

Computer Engineering: statement of educational and professional goals and Graduate Record Examination.

Computer Science: statement of educational and professional goals and Graduate Record Examination.

Computer Science and Engineering Ph.D.: statement of educational and professional goals and Graduate Record Examination.

Earth and Environmental Sciences: statement of educational and professional goals and three letters of recommendation.

Educational Specialist (post-master's): statement of educational and professional goals, three letters of recommendation, faculty interview, and Graduate Record Examination or Miller Analogies Test.

Engineering Ph.D.: statement of educational and professional goals and Graduate Record Examination.

English: Undergraduate major in English or at least 20 quarter hours in upper-level undergraduate courses in English, with acceptable GPA, and a paper, using secondary sources, written on a topic in English or a related field (five pages minimum; also, this may be a paper previously handed in for an undergraduate class). Students re-applying for the graduate program in English do not need to submit the paper, since evidence of the writing skill is already on file in the department.

Environmental Sciences Ph.D.: statement of goals and objectives (1 to 2 pages), three letters of recommendation, and Graduate Record Examination.

History: statement of goals to be sought in the program, three letters of recommendation, and a writing sample.

Human Factors and Industrial/Organizational Psychology: three letters of recommendation, an essay outlining professional goals and academic interests, and Graduate Record Examination.

Humanities: statement of background and goals for program of study (approximately 250 words), a writing sample, two letters of reference, and an interview.

M.B.A.: three personal references and Graduate Management Admission Test.

M.I.S.: three letters of reference and a detailed resumé that describes competencies and skills.

M.P.H.: Graduate Record Examination.

M.S. Logistics Management: Supply Chain Management: three letters of reference and a detailed resumé that describes competencies and skills.

Music: baccalaureate degree in music.

Nursing–M.S.: Essay clarifying career goals (250 words or less). Graduate Management Admission Test for MS/MBA applicants.

Nursing–D.N.P.: three letters of recommendation, five page statement of goals related to D.N.P. education, copy of resumé/CV, and evidence of advanced practice certification (e.g. ANCC, NCC). Those applying for direct care must provide a copy of their Certificate of Authority (COA).

Pharmacology and Toxicology: statement of professional goals and purpose of graduate study, three letters of recommendation.

Physics: two letters of reference and statement of purpose.

Public Administration: 400 word essay (outlining personal and academic goals, professional objectives, preparation for graduate study, and relationships of goals and objectives to the program) and three letters of recommendation. (Applicants must also schedule a faculty interview by contacting the department.)

Social and Applied Economics: Graduate Record Examination.
