Vision

Wright State University, inspired by the creative spirit of the Wright Brothers, will be Ohio's most learning-centered and innovative university, known and admired for our inclusive culture that respects the unique value of each of our students, faculty, staff, and alumni and for the positive transformative impact we have on the lives of our students and the communities we serve.

Mission

We transform the lives of our students and the communities we serve.

We will:

- build a solid foundation for student success at all levels through high-quality, innovative programs;
- conduct scholarly research and creative endeavors that impact quality of life;
- · engage in meaningful community service;
- drive the economic revitalization of our region and our state and empower all of our students, faculty, staff, and alumni to develop professionally, intellectually, and personally.

Institutional Priorities

In 2013, Wright State University introduced a five-year strategic plan themed "Empower" to guide the core mission of transforming the lives of our students and the communities we serve. At the heart of the plan are five key goals:

GOAL 1: ACADEMIC QUALITY AND PROGRAM DISTINCTIVENESS

Enhance our distinctive learning experience to produce talented graduates with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions essential for lifelong learning and the ability to lead in a rapidly changing world.

GOAL 2: STUDENT ACCESS AND EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT

Enhance student access and success of a diverse student body through quality and innovative instruction and student life programs that lead to graduation and career placement.

GOAL 3: RESEARCH AND INNOVATION

Attain regional and national prominence and leadership in creative, use-inspired research, scholarship, and entrepreneurism.

GOAL 4: COMMUNITY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Promote educational, social, cultural, economic, and sustainable development with local, state, national, and global partners through our leadership or supportive collaboration. Create a campus culture that values and supports community engagement and economic development.

GOAL 5: ESSENTIAL RESOURCES

Develop and maintain the human, fiscal, and physical resources required to accomplish the university's strategic goals.

Each year, a University Budget is developed to recognize and support these institutional priorities.

Financial Metrics

Wright State University utilizes a variety of metrics and data at the institutional, state, and national levels to assess fiscal strength and engage in strategic financial planning for the near and long terms. An analysis of the data bring us to the conclusion that Wright State continues to be financial strong and well positioned to deliver on our strategic plan goals with a positive outlook for future growth.

The following pages include various measures that are used to assess the university's fiscal strength.

Table 1.1 Senate Bill 6 Ratios

Senate Bill 6 ratios, established in the late 1990's, are a series of financial ratios calculated and monitored by the Ohio Board of Regents. These were created legislatively and measure various aspects of financial health.

The composite scale of these ratios ranges from 0 to 5, with 5 being the highest.

As supported by the ratios, Wright State remains financially sound. Although the balance sheet is strong as evidenced by the primary reserve and viability scores, the income statement has been challenged as of late, reflected here by a net income score of 1. This is due a base operating revenue decline of nearly $20 million annually as a result of a 15% reduction in state appropriations in 2012 coupled with an expected drop in student tuition and fee income following conversion to semesters in fiscal year 2013. While the projection for fiscal year 2015 is a decrease from 2014, this ratio is projected to increase again in fiscal year 2016 as the university's outstanding debt continues to decrease and our expendable net assets are projected to begin another modest growth period.

Table 1.2 Board Financial Policy Guidelines

Three key metrics are tracked and monitored by the Board of Trustees and the University leadership.

The first metric is the change in unrestricted net assets, which is net income as a percentage of total operating revenue. The trend from fiscal year 2014 to fiscal year 2015 is a reflection of investments into the university's budget priorities that drew upon a minimal level of accumulated reserves and created a projected operating loss for 2015.

The second metric is the measure of reserves, which represents the combined unrestricted, restricted expendable, and Foundation assets per annualized student FTE. The fiscal 2015 projection is nearly equivalent to the median of the Moody's Aa3/A1 scale.

The third metric is the university's debt capacity, calculated by taking the median debt for a Moody's Aa3/A1 ratings and reducing this amount by any current and indirect debt that may impact our ratings. Wright State currently has over $60 million in available debt capacity within the Aa3/A1 median range.

| (Goal | to Reach A1 - Aa3 Median) | FY 2014 actual | FY 2015 projected | FY 2016 budgeted | Moody's A1 - Aa3 Median |

Moody's Services considers four financial ratios in its ratings process. The first measure of unrestricted net assets as a percentage of operating expenses shows a declining trend, primarily as a result of the projected decline in unrestricted net assets in fiscal 2015. Unrestricted net assets are expected to increase again beginning in fiscal 2016.

The second measure, unrestricted net assets as a percentage of debt, while also depicting a declining trend, is well above the calculated median target.

The third and fourth measures, debt service as a percentage of operating expenses and direct debt service coverage address our ability to meet our debt service obligations. Wright State continues to be well positioned due to its relatively low level of outstanding debt.

Table 1.4 Wright State University Total Net Assets (000's)

2004-2014 Change in Net Assets: + $87,011,000 (+ 28.7%)

The Total Net Assets chart displays the trend in the growth of the University's net assets since 2004. The picture is clear that over this period of time the University has established and strengthened its financial standing. Net assets represent the university's equity and include not only the liquid assets but also the physical infrastructure. It is important to note that this growth has transpired simultaneously with meeting all of the university's goals of serving our students, our community, and our region.

While a portion of the net assets have been utilized over the last several years as further strategic investments into this university's future, the net assets have grown almost $90 million over this time period.

Table 1.5 Wright State University Investment Income

As net assets have grown over the years, so has the investment portfolio. While the investment results in any given year are a result of overall market factors, over the long term this revenue source has both provided the university with a supplemental source from which to meet is annual operating needs as well as a means by which to grow the overall net assets.

Beginning in fiscal 2015 the university implemented a new discretionary investment management model that is expected to deliver even better long term results and manage risk more effectively.

In terms of enrollment, this graph shows the steady increase in annual student FTE enrollments for Ohio since 1989, with a slight dip in 2012 to 2013 due to the conversion from quarters to semesters across the state. It also shows that state appropriations have declined and net tuition revenue has increased.

The conclusion — it appears that tuition revenue continues to grow as the primary source of our operating revenue...

Table 1.7 Net Tuition per FTE Student and State/Local Appropriations Midwest States FY 2014

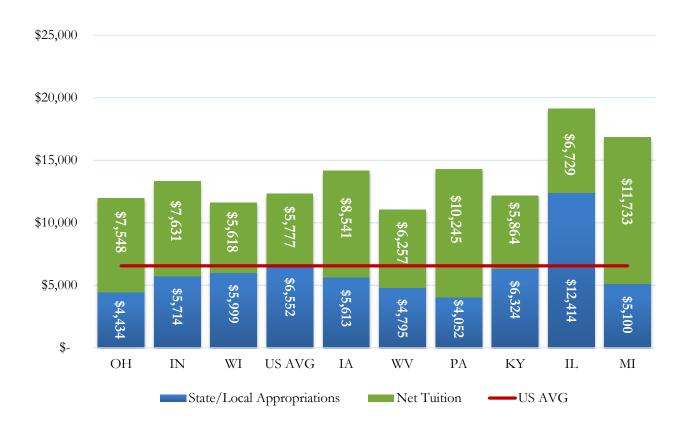

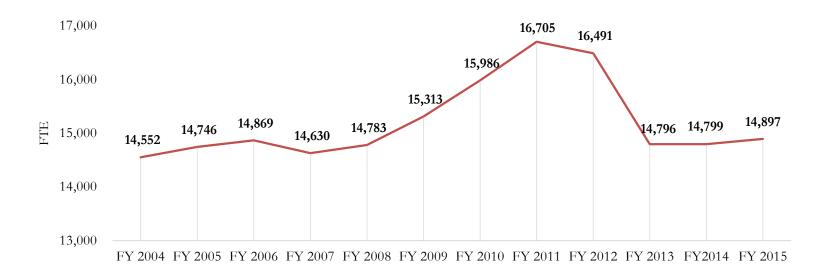

Table 1.8 State Appropriation per Dollar of Gross Tuition

With growing enrollments and the declining trend in state funding, less and less has been available when translated to a per student full-time-equivalent basis. $2.14 per tuition dollar generated in 1980 down to 46 cents in 2014; a 78% decrease.

This issue is further amplified when Ohio is compared to its midwestern peers. As noted here, although Ohio has the lowest net tuition, Ohio also has the lowest funding support from the state in dollars per FTE and one of the lowest in terms of percent of net tuition funded by the state.

Table 1.9 Wright State University Enrollment - All Students All Terms FTE

| Undergraduate | 1.30% | -0.50% |
| Graduate/Professional | -0.40% | 6.30% |
| All Students | 1.00% | 0.70% |

The trend in Wright State enrollments shows extraordinary growth spurred by the Great Recession and the conversion from quarters to semesters followed by a period of correction. The university now enters a phase of managed strategic growth.

Over the term shown here, undergraduate students represented the area of growth; however, in recent years and into the near term, it appears that the graduate enrollments are on a growth trajectory.

Table 1.10 Annual Tuition Charges: Wright State vs. Average for Public Four-Years

This trend shows that over the past 10 years, Wright State's tuition, which was above the US average, is now nearly $350 below that value, tangibly representing our commitment to be accessible and affordable, yet always delivering quality in terms of student success.

Wright State's affordability is further supported by comparing its undergraduate fees to those of other Ohio universities.

Table 1.12 Wright State University Total State Share of Instruction

Table 1.13 Wright State University State Share of Instruction per Student FTE

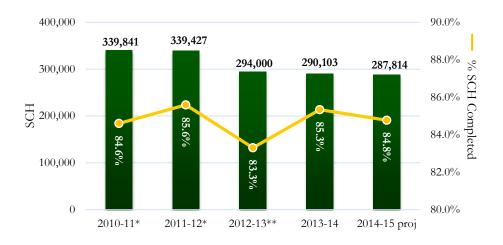

The total State Share of Instruction (SSI) Wright State received over a 12-year period peaked and dropped back, but is again showing a steady upward trend.

Per student FTE, the State Share of Instruction over this period slightly increased from $5,236 to $5,480 in nominal dollars.

The SSI funding formula is now fully allocated based on course and degree completions; therefore, 100% of our state funding is based on performance.

It is important to note that this trend is impacted by both the dollars received in SSI as well as enrollment, which has been quite dynamic since the beginning of the Great Recession, the nearly 15% reduction in SSI funding in the 2012-2013 State Biennium Budget, and Wright State's conversion from quarters to semesters.

Table 1.14 Wright State University Undergraduate Completed Student Credit Hours (SCH)

In terms of completed credit hours, there has been a shift from undergraduate to graduate and doctoral and we have experienced a slight decline over the past few years.

Multiple initiatives are underway to drive retention and course completions and are outlined in the University's College Completion Plan approved last year by the University Board of Trustees.

Table 1.19 Wright State University Master's Degrees as a Percent of State Total

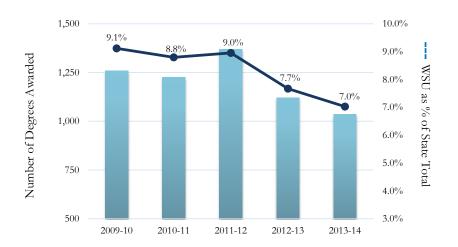

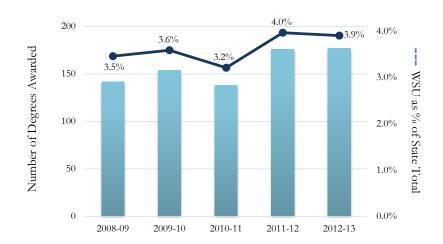

Table 1.18 Wright State University Bachelor's Degrees as a Percent of State Total

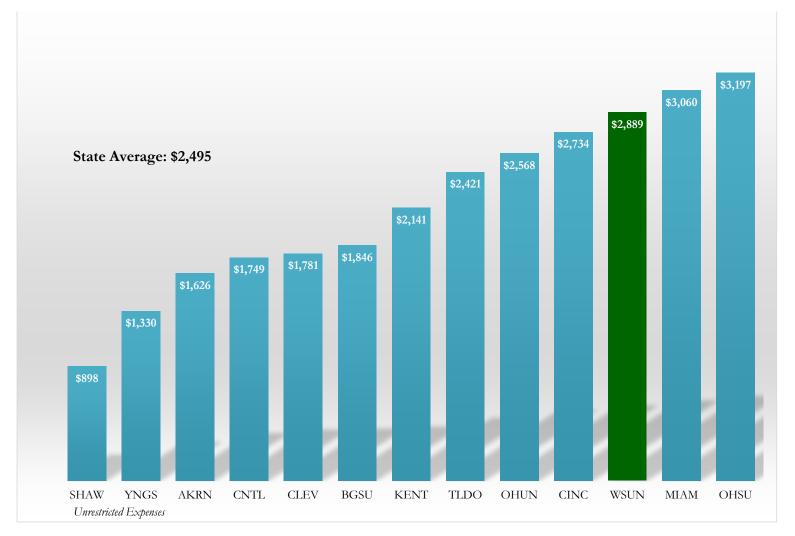

Table 1.20 Wright State University Doctoral & Professional Degrees as a Percent of State Total

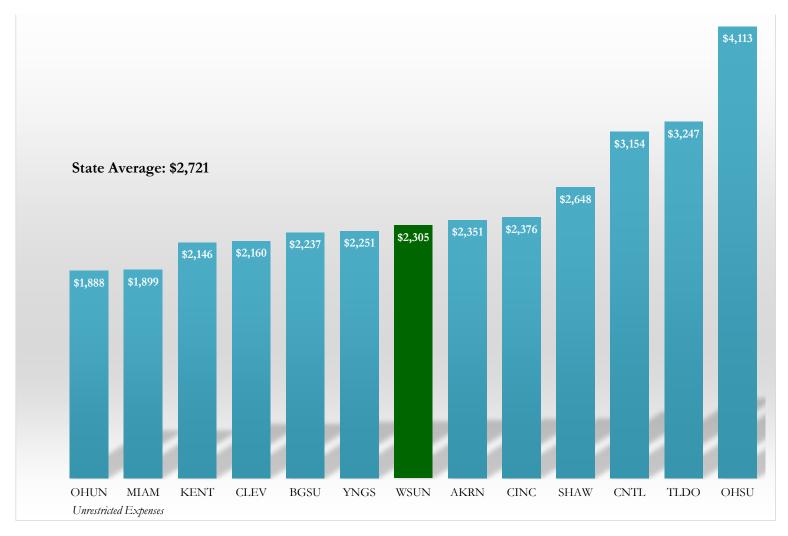

With respect to degree completions, there has been a slight decline within the categories of Associates Degrees and Bachelor's degrees. This can be primarily attributed to the enrollment surge we experienced during the Great Recession coupled with the exodus of students who expedited their degree completion to avoid the challenge of dealing with semester conversion. We expect that the trend will be on an upward swing into the future. Master's degrees as well as Doctoral and Professional degrees have performed within a relevant range, with a similar impact from the Great Recession and semester conversion on Masters degrees.

Table 1.21 FY 2014 Academic Support per Student FTE

Wright State University prides itself in focusing resources to our mission, which is evident as we compare ourselves to our peers in terms of the expenses for academic support, which are expenses associated with University Libraries, deans' offices, University College, and Research and Sponsored Programs. The chart above shows that Wright State is well above the state average.

The positive trend of Wright State's cost per full time equivalent (FTE) continues in terms of institutional support, which are the expenses associated with: fiscal operations, information technology and data processing; space management; human resources; procurement, and a variety of other administrative expenses. Wright State's expenses are more than $400 below the state average.

FY 2016 Budget Summary

Wright State University presents a balanced budget for fiscal year 2016 with the Current Funds Unrestricted Budget total sources and uses equaling approximately $311,056,000. This represents a growth of approximately $6.5 million or 2.1% over fiscal year 2015.

Similarly, the FY 2016 Current Funds Budget (including both unrestricted and restricted funds) presents total sources and uses in balance at approximately $400,406,000; an increase of nearly $2 million or 0.5% over fiscal 2015.

The FY 2016 Budget development was based on several assumptions as follow:

- State Share of Instruction (SSI) funding is estimated based on the April 29, 2015 draft schedule from the Ohio Board of Regents.
- Enrollment growth is estimated at a 2.6% increase in student credit hours from fiscal year 2015 actual.
- Tuition increases will be adopted as follows: Undergraduate (0%); Graduate (2.3%); Professional (2.3%); Non-resident (2.3%).
- New/Alternate Revenue includes 50,000 from Anthem in support of wellness.
- Investment Income is calculated at 5% of the average estimated investable base.
- Salaries and wages increases are estimated according to bargaining agreements plus 2.5% non-bargaining compensation pool.
- Benefits are calculated per negotiated Department of Health and Human Services rates.
- Operations are based upon FY 2015 forecast and the Consumer Price Index (CPI).

The following pages provide further detail on the University's current unrestricted and restricted fund budgets and auxiliary services for fiscal year 2016.
